

I listen to K-Love through out the day, it gives me news information and christian updates as well as wonderful music. K-Love offers a positive approach in music for our community,our community needs a radio station that re-enforces good values for our young people.